

WELCOME to the 43rd Annual Woman's Forum

Christmas Tour of Homes

Below are details for the tour:

- Thursday, December 7
- 11:00 a.m. until 8:00 p.m.
- Five beautiful homes decorated in their Christmas finery await you. They are as follows:

Lee & Bart Bybee - 2003 Avondale Street
Tammey & Jeff Haynes - 2113 Avondale Street
Ashley & Ford Swanson - 3104 Lombard Drive
Suzanne Weeks - 1801 Woodridge Drive
Lisa & Robert Woodruff - 2202 Ellingham Drive

- Tickets are $25 per person and go on sale starting November 7, 2023.
- Tickets may be purchased at Harvest Drug & Gift, The Containery (cash only), The Forum, and The Kemp Center for the Arts.
- Tickets are also available for purchase (cash or check only) at the homes on the day of the tour.
- Maps to the homes are located on the back of your ticket.
- Additionally, a descriptive program may be obtained at the first home you visit and will include a map with directions to each home.
- Tour homes in any order. All tours are self-guided.
- Volunteers are inside each home to direct you and point out special features.
- A complimentary refreshment bar hosted by Union Square Mortgage is located in the Lounge inside The Forum on Speedway Avenue. (There will also be a door prize drawing.)
- Additional parking is available at The Forum.
- Public restrooms inside The Forum will be available.
- No food or drink permitted in homes.
- No strollers allowed.
- Photos are not permitted inside homes.
- The original tour was started by the Woman's Forum in 1979; however, the Senior-Junior Forum acquired primary oversight of the event in 2015.
- This year's event is a joint effort of the Senior-Junior Forum, the Junior Forum, and The Arts Council.
- Proceeds from the tour benefit charitable works in our community.

Thank you for your support of the 2023 Christmas Tour of Homes.
